God gives us courage

But, Lord, you are my shield,
my wonderful God who gives me courage.
I will pray to the Lord,
and he will answer me from his holy mountain
Psalm 3:3-4 (NCV)

Read:

Find your bible and read the story of David and Goliath. If you have a bible with chapters and verses then look up 1 Samuel 17

Older kids:

Get out your bible and read 1 Samuel chapter 17 – the whole lot if you can.

What are the things that you don't understand? Try asking your parents or send in questions to Ruth

What had you discovered new in reading this story?

What can you learn from this passage?

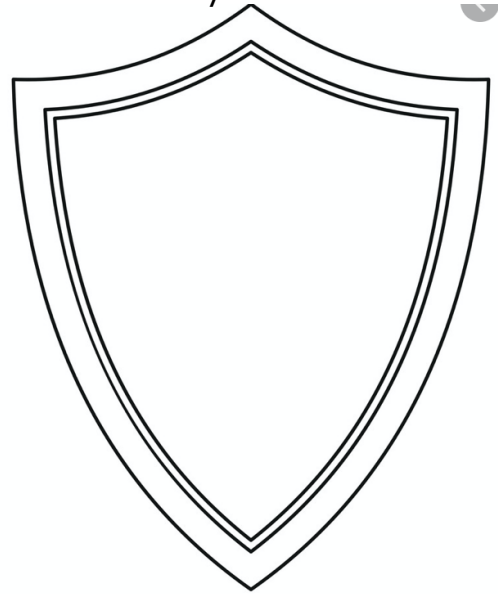

Craft:

How about making your own David and Goliath with some cardboard tubes and retell the story to your parents?

Craft:

Have a go at making a shield – find a large piece of card and cut it into a shield shape. Paint it or cover in foil. Stick on the verse from the bible or label it 'God is my shield'!

You could use this shape outline:

Or you could make a mini one and make patterns on some foil with a blunt pencil?

Collage:

Make a collage: find 5 small stones and make a picture to remind you of something you learnt from today – For example:

Game

Play a bean bag toss game by making your 'Goliath' out of some rolled up card. or fill some plastic bottles with water and see how many you can knock down!

Prayer:

The Holy Spirit helped David and gave him courage to fight Goliath. What are the 'big' things in your life that you need God to help you with? Perhaps write them on a piece of paper and screw the paper into a ball hold that ball and say "Holy Spirit fill me, give me your strength and courage to do/say/not be afraid....." Ask Jesus how he is going to help you?
